He and his wife Jane received a share of George Chapman Sr's estate on Harding Run, now part of Hancock Co, on Apr. 7, 1815. Abraham Cuppy died intestate in Brooke Co, Va, early in 1819. His son, in a letter to Dr. Draper, stated that his father was a captain of Militia and died from effects of exposure following a tour in 1818. His estate was appraised on Feb. 25, 1819 by Roger Hill, David Pugh, and Robert Mills. His widow, Jane (Chapman) Cuppy, married Joshua Whims in Brooke Co, Va, on March 20, 1827.

Daniel Cuppy is reported to have married in northwestern Maryland, a section then claimed by both Pennsylvania and Maryland. He died shortly after the birth of his youngest son, Isaac. There is some evidence that Daniel settled on a land warrant tract in Monongalia County, Va, which his father had purchased about 1767 and which he sold to David Frazee on Apr. 24, 1781.
Descendants of Daniel Cuppy report that after Daniel Cuppy had died, his widow married a man by name of Walker. It is quite likely that this family came to Kentucky about 1792. Aaron Cuppy appeared for first time on Nelson County Tax list of 1794. He was associated with the family of Isaac and Elizabeth Hibbs. It is thought that Elizabeth was the eldest daughter of John Cuppy, Sr.

After his father's death, John was probably brought up in the home of the DeVore Family which would account for the French spelling of his name. John learned the blacksmith trade. He married the daughter of Frederick Spahr in York Co, Pennsylvania, and about 1800, he removed to Monongalia (now Preston, 1818) Co, Va. He acquired 1283 acres and built a large stone house known as the "Old Stone Tavern" on his land, called "The Glades." He obtained a fair degree of education and wrote a legible hand. He built the first schoolhouse in that community and was one of the founders of the Lutheran Church in that section. He and his wife are buried on The Glades Farm.
